

Francis Durbridge's

Suddenly

at the brewhouse

at

11-15 march 2008, 7.45pm, sat. mat. 2.30pm

Home

tickets £9, £8 concs. box office 01823 283244

Francis Durbridge's

Suddenly

at the brewhouse

at 11-15 march 2008, 7.45pm, sat. mat. 2.30pm

Home

tickets £9, £8 concs. box office 01823 283244

Francis Durbridge's

Suddenly

at the brewhouse

at 11-15 march 2008, 7.45pm, sat. mat. 2.30pm

Home

tickets £9, £8 concs. box office 01823 283244

Francis Durbridge's

Suddenly

at the brewhouse

at 11-15 march 2008, 7.45pm, sat. mat. 2.30pm

Home

tickets £9, £8 concs. box office 01823 283244

Suddenly At Home

by Francis Durbridge

A rich wife, a working man, an author, an addict... the souring of the Swinging Sixties in a twisting tale of murder, love, money and betrayal.

A masterpiece from the pen of one of the greats of the genre, this play will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

Suddenly At Home is an intricate, tense thriller, but not a whodunnit. You see the murder committed early in the play; you know who did it. You also know why they did it, as the killer explains everything in detail. Chillingly, you also observe the crafting of the alibi.

Tension mounts as you ask yourself: will the murderer get away with it? Mistakes are made, the alibi is less than perfect, and awkward questions are asked. You will increasingly desire to see the crime solved and justice done.

There are red herrings, false alibis and unforeseen circumstances a-plenty for you to try and unravel. The action takes place in the high octane period of the early seventies, as the hippy dream of love and peace crashed in the reality of drugs and money. The final twist will keep you guessing right to the end.

The Brewhouse Theatre, Taunton

Tuesday 11th - Saturday 15th March 2008

Curtain up 7.45pm, Saturday Matinée 2.30pm

Tickets from The Brewhouse Box Office

On 01823 283244 or www.thebrewhouse.net

Suddenly At Home

by Francis Durbridge

A rich wife, a working man, an author, an addict... the souring of the Swinging Sixties in a twisting tale of murder, love, money and betrayal.

A masterpiece from the pen of one of the greats of the genre, this play will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

Suddenly At Home is an intricate, tense thriller, but not a whodunnit. You see the murder committed early in the play; you know who did it. You also know why they did it, as the killer explains everything in detail. Chillingly, you also observe the crafting of the alibi.

Tension mounts as you ask yourself: will the murderer get away with it? Mistakes are made, the alibi is less than perfect, and awkward questions are asked. You will increasingly desire to see the crime solved and justice done.

There are red herrings, false alibis and unforeseen circumstances a-plenty for you to try and unravel. The action takes place in the high octane period of the early seventies, as the hippy dream of love and peace crashed in the reality of drugs and money. The final twist will keep you guessing right to the end.

The Brewhouse Theatre, Taunton

Tuesday 11th - Saturday 15th March 2008

Curtain up 7.45pm, Saturday Matinée 2.30pm

Tickets from The Brewhouse Box Office

On 01823 283244 or www.thebrewhouse.net

Suddenly At Home

by Francis Durbridge

A rich wife, a working man, an author, an addict... the souring of the Swinging Sixties in a twisting tale of murder, love, money and betrayal.

A masterpiece from the pen of one of the greats of the genre, this play will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

Suddenly At Home is an intricate, tense thriller, but not a whodunnit. You see the murder committed early in the play; you know who did it. You also know why they did it, as the killer explains everything in detail. Chillingly, you also observe the crafting of the alibi.

Tension mounts as you ask yourself: will the murderer get away with it? Mistakes are made, the alibi is less than perfect, and awkward questions are asked. You will increasingly desire to see the crime solved and justice done.

There are red herrings, false alibis and unforeseen circumstances a-plenty for you to try and unravel. The action takes place in the high octane period of the early seventies, as the hippy dream of love and peace crashed in the reality of drugs and money. The final twist will keep you guessing right to the end.

The Brewhouse Theatre, Taunton

Tuesday 11th - Saturday 15th March 2008

Curtain up 7.45pm, Saturday Matinée 2.30pm

Tickets from The Brewhouse Box Office

On 01823 283244 or www.thebrewhouse.net

January 2008
To all our friends
and supporters

A very happy New Year from Taunton Thespians, and we hope very much to see you at our March Brewhouse production, Suddenly At Home:

A rich wife, a working man, an author, an addict... the souring of the Swinging Sixties in a twisting tale of murder, love, money and betrayal. A masterpiece from the pen of one of the greats of the genre, this play will keep you on the edge of your seat from beginning to end.

Suddenly At Home is an intricate, tense thriller, but not a whodunnit. You see the murder committed early in the play; you know who did it and why. Chillingly, you also observe the crafting of the alibi. Tension mounts as you ask yourself: will the murderer get away with it?

Mistakes are made, the alibi is less than perfect, and awkward questions are asked. You will increasingly desire to see the crime solved and justice done. There are red herrings, false alibis and unforeseen circumstances a-plenty for you to try and unravel. The action takes place in the high octane period of the early seventies, as the hippy dream of love and peace crashed in the reality of drugs and money. The final twist will keep you guessing right to the end.

Full details are on our web site:

www.tauntonthespians.org.uk

together with information about our Murder Mysteries and cabaret group, Déjà Revue. You will also see early information about our two one act festival entries, You're in Room 8 (an original script) and Albee's The Zoo Story.

If you have any comments or questions, please feel free to call the Secretary of Taunton Thespians on 01823 322440 or e-mail secretary@tauntonthespians.org.uk.